

STUDENT-ATHLETES, PARENTS AND COLLEGE RECRUITING

→ ATHLETICS & ACADEMIC SUCCESS

The role that athletics plays in the academic performance of a student-athlete. Does involvement in sports enhance or diminish a student's ability to achieve success in their academic pursuits?

Keith Fasciana

Baseball Instructor and Elementary School Principal (William Floyd)

All Pro Sports Academy

Keith is the Director of Junior Programs at All Pro Sports Academy and the Principal of William Floyd Elementary School. He was Varsity Baseball Coach at William Floyd High School from 2004 through 2006 and served as Assistant Baseball Coach at St. Joseph's College from 1998 through 2000.

→ COLLEGE RECRUITING - HOW TO PREPARE YOURSELF

Understanding the college sports recruitment process and how best to prepare yourself for this critical step in your career.

Toby Elmore

President – SportsWorx Long Island

Toby is a proud Long Islander, graduated from Sachem High School, and played football at Hofstra University where he earned his BS in Physical Education. He has taught Adapted Physical Education and coached Varsity Football at Freeport for the past ten years. Toby is President of SportsWorx Long Island which is an innovative and dynamic athletic scholarship and recruiting resource for high school student-athletes.

→ PARENTS & PLAYERS EXPECTATIONS

What do parents and players expect from that summer travel baseball league and increased level of competitive baseball and program development.

Raymond Babinsky

Certified Personal Trainer - Infiniti Performance Sports Training

Ray is an owner of Infiniti Performance Sports Training and has been involved in amateur athletics for over ten years. He served as Varsity Baseball Coach from 1999 through 2004 at Half Hollow Hills East High School, is an Adjunct College Level Teacher in Sports Business and Marketing and served as Program Director and Head Coach of Long Island Titans Baseball where he received the 2005 AABC National Coach of the Year Award.